 HOW YOU FEEL

OTHER WORDS TO KNOW

Queer → people use this word to identify with and celebrate people of all gender identities and sexualities!
- can also be a word that hurts when used in a mean way ÷

LGBTQ+ → acronym for lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and queer people PLUS other people who use different language to describe their identity

PRONOUNS & HOW TO USE THEM!

A pronoun is: words you may like others to use in place of your name! Examples include:

- she/her - She loves to play baseball.
- he/him - His favorite animal is a frog.
- they/them - They are really great at math.
- ze/hir - ze does not like carrots.

Misgendering: when someone is called by a pronoun they do not like (either on purpose or accidentally)

- If you do this, APOLOGIZE! Then, correct yourself with the right pronoun.
