

MOTHERS' CLUB, ST. PETE

Are you looking to connect with others over your experiences as a woman, m/other, and friend? Are you looking for a deeper level of communication that involves opening up about your personal journey, while learning about fun, cool, smart stuff locally? Join our membership-based collective. $30 annually.

St. Petersburg Mothers' Club, MoM's Connect Every week Tuesday morning 10am -11:15 AM. Join with an annual Mothers' Club Membership (RSVP using the form below). *We turn no one away for lack of funds – get it touch if you are experiencing economic hardship. 538 28th St. N. St. Pete, FL.

St. Petersburg Mothers' Club, MoM's Connect Festivities, friendship, music and food: Second Thursday of each month 5:30-7PM. Meet at Creative Grape for drinks, food, open mic listening. Let us know you're coming! 3100 3rd Ave. St. Pete. Text 877-711-MOMS (6667).

St. Petersburg Mothers' Club, MoM's Connect Playground; Other gatherings: October, new members welcome tea; November, collage-making; December, ornament making; January, vision boards, February, knit & crochet; March, women's history; April, beading; May, MoM Conference; June, finding happiness in chaos. Contact us.

We can't wait to meet you!

Education Facilitator, Marcile grew up in Bradenton, Florida. She published her first poem when she was 14, then went on to study filmmaking and was drawn to Avantgarde styles. Marcile earned her BFA in film and is the mother of two. She lives in Historic Kenwood, makes art, and teaches non-violent communication, as well as hosting local workshops focused on creativity and healing. In 2022, she published her first book, Transcend Dance. She is passionate about mandala meditation, and creating avenues of empowerment and change for individuals and families.